

Assist. Prof. Dr. Boran Şekeroğlu was born on 21st December, 1980 in Nicosia. He studied his elementary studies at the Gelibolu Primary school, his secondary school studies at the Bayraktar Turkish Maarif College Secondary School and completed his high school at the Turkish Maarif College.

Boran Şekeroğlu graduated from the Department of Computer Engineering in 2001(B.Sc.) of the Near East University with full scholarship, and obtained his M.Sc. Degree from the Department of Computer Engineering in 2004. He obtained his Ph.D. In 2008 at the Department of Computer Engineering of the Near East University. He has been working as a teaching staff and chairman at the Department of Information Systems Engineering since 2013.

His main research interests are on Neural Networks and Image Processing. He has published 5 SCI journal articles, authored or co-authored book chapters, and presented 17 articles in conferences.

Assist. Prof. Dr. Boran Şekeroğlu is a member of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineering.