

Biography

She was born in Kdz. Ereğli in 1982. She completed primary school in Kdz. Ereğli Ted collage. She continued secondary and high school in Kdz. Ereğli Anatolian High School and from Middle East Technical University Department of Psychology in 2005. She completed Bed (Bachelaor degree of Education) at Near East University in the Department of Guidance and Counseling and she currently maintains a PhD in Developmental Psychology at Maltepe University.

Since 2007 she is working as a lecturer in pre-school education department of the Near East University. During these years she has taught introduction to psychology, developmental psychology, theories of psychology, behaviour disorders, introduction to education and psychology of learning lessons to pre-school education and guidance and counseling departments' graduate and master level students.