

BIOGRAPHY

Mustafa Alas was born in 1990 in Lefkosa. After completing his higher education at Levent College, Lefkosa, he continued his studies abroad at the University of Southampton, U.K. In 2011 he received his bachelor degree from the University of Southampton Civil and Environmental Engineering Department with Second Class Honours degree. He then returned back to his home country and between 2012-2013 he served in the military as occupational Civil Engineer Sergeant. He is currently working at the Near East University Civil Engineering Department as research assistant while he is studying his MSc. Degree at the same University. His affiliations include active membership to Cyprus Turkish Civil Engineering Association since 2011.